ORDER

Judgment

1. This case was issued on 27 January 2026. The Defence and Counterclaim were filed and served on 1 March 2026. The Claimant was originally represented but his lawyers came off the record on 7 March 2026.
2. Standard directions were given, and the matter was set to be heard at a remote trial on 20 May 2026.
3. On 5 May 2026, the Claimant wrote to the Court indicating that settlement negotiations were taking place and that an agreement would be “completed and signed within the next few days”, and because of that development, the parties requested that proceedings be stayed. The Court duly stayed proceedings.
4. On 14 May 2026, the Court made enquiries of the parties as to the status of the case. The Claimant responded on 17 May 2026 informing the Court that settlement negotiations were still ongoing.
5. In June 2026, the Court made two further enquiries of the parties, including indicating that if there was no response from the parties, that the claim and defence would be struck out. A deadline of 16.00 on 16 June 2026 was given to the parties.

6. That deadline having expired with no communication from either party, both the claim and defence are hereby struck out for non-compliance with the directions of the Court, without prejudice to the rights of either party to recommence proceedings.

By the Court,

Mr Umar Azmeh, Registrar
